IMPORTANT INFORMATION

PRIVACY

We are committed to protecting your privacy. We use the information you provide us to quote on your application for a policy, to provide the insurance, administer the policy and assess and manage any claims. We only provide personal information to our underwriters and reinsurers (and their representatives) and those we appoint to assist us with claims under your policy.

If you do not provide us with full information, we cannot properly quote for your insurance and the insurance cover may not be appropriate for you. In that event, please ensure that you read the Product Disclosure Statement to ensure that the policy is right for you.

Our Privacy Policy contains information on how we collect, maintain and protect your personal information as well as your access to information held on you. Please refer to our Privacy Policy for further information on how we maintain your personal information and how you can access your information held on our files. To view or download a copy of our Privacy Policy go to the Privacy Notice page on our website and click on the link at the bottom of the page.

If you provide us with personal information about anyone else, we rely on you to have their consent if you will be providing their information to us, and that you have told them to whom we may provide it, the purposes for which we will use it and how they can access it. If the information is sensitive, we rely on you to have obtained their consent on these matters.

EXPATRIATE MEDICAL EXPENSES INSURANCE

YOUR DUTY OF DISCLOSURE

Before you enter into an insurance contract with us, the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 requires you to provide us with the information we need to enable us to decide whether and on what terms your proposal for insurance is acceptable and to calculate how much premium is required for your insurance.

The Act imposes a different duty the first time you enter into the policy with us to that which applies when you vary, renew, extend, reinstate or replace your policy. We set these two duties out below.

Your Duty of Disclosure when you enter into this policy with us for the first time:

You will be asked various questions when you first apply for this policy. When you answer these questions, you must:

- give us honest and complete answers,
- tell us everything you know, and
- tell us everything that a reasonable person in the circumstances could be expected to tell us.

Your Duty of Disclosure when you renew, vary, extend, reinstate or replace your policy:

When you renew, vary, extend, reinstate or replace the policy your duty is to tell us before the renewal, variation, extension, reinstatement or replacement is made, every matter known to you which:

- you know, or
- a reasonable person in the circumstances could be expected to know, is relevant to our decision whether to insure you and whether any special conditions need to apply to your policy.

What you do not need to tell us for either duty:

You do not need to tell us about any matter:

- that diminishes our risk,
- that is of common knowledge,
- that we know or should know as an insurer, or
- that we tell you we do not need to know.

Who do the above two duties apply to? Everyone who is insured under the policy must comply with the relevant duty. What happens if you or they do not comply with either duty? If you or they do not comply with the relevant duty, we may cancel the policy or reduce the amount we pay if you make a claim. If fraud is involved, we may treat the policy as if it never existed and pay nothing.

Renewal Procedure

Before this policy expires we will normally offer renewal by sending a renewal invitation advising the amount payable to renew this policy. It is important that you check the information shown before renewing each year to satisfy yourself that the details are correct.

DECLARATION: I/WE HEREBY DECLARE AND WARRANT that the answers given above are in every respect true and correct, and that I/We have not withheld any information within My/Our knowledge likely to affect the decision of the insurer as to My/Our eligibility for Insurance. The application and declaration shall be the basis of the contract between the insurer and Myself/Ourselves, and I/We agree to accept the insurer's policy subject to the terms and conditions to be contained therein.

I further authorise the insurer to consult my doctor regarding any condition declared on this application and authorise my doctor to release any information relevant to same.
